Catechism Ponderings - The First Commandment

As we are on the cusp of starting another year of confirmation, I thought it would be good to review the great significance of the First Commandment which states "You shall have no other gods." What does this mean? "We should fear, love, and trust in God above all things."

At the heart of all this is the desire, spurred on by the evil one, for human beings to be like God. The evil one once said to Eve "For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." She took the bait, and we are impacted by Adam and Eve's actions to this day. Martin Luther once said in the Large Catechism "A god is that to which we look for all good and where we resort for help in every time of need; to have a god is simply to trust and believe in one with our whole heart." Which means that things like money, property, fame, and even the blessings of family, friends, good health, and the self can become gods or "the be all and end all." As John Calvin once said, "the human heart is an idol factory."

Thankfully the true God has come down to shatter the false gods and replace them with the true God through the person and work of Jesus Christ. Unlike the false gods who are never satisfied (there is never enough money, property and fame), our God sees us as blameless through the blood of Jesus. Through Holy Spirit driven faith in him, we can follow this commandment. As you prepare for confession and absolution and/or come to communion, it might be helpful to ask yourself these questions...

"What or whom do I fear Most?"

"In what or whom do I Trust Most for financial security, physical safety, or emotional support?"

"Do I expect only good from God in every situation, or do I worry, doubt, complain or feel unfairly treated when things go wrong?"

Thank you to everyone who walked in the parade with the church's float last Saturday in the Columbia Days parade. Shelly Augustin, Ms Anna, Mark, Deb & Sarah Eischer, Kevin, Lillian & Kaitlyn Koenigstein, Pastor & Lisa Krenz, Robin Lacefield, Jamie Moeslein,

Congregational Meeting

Join us on Sunday, September 28th in the fellowship hall following the late worship service (11:45am) as we discuss the potential pros and cons of getting a Director of Christian Education.

Christina Stackle, a 20 plus year DCE from Peace across the river, has graciously agreed to come to this meeting to give insights on what a Director of Christian Education can do in a congregation. In addition, the financial implications for our congregation will also be conveyed. A free light brunch will also be served.

Asking the SO THAT QUESTION

In 2 Corinthians 5:15 the Apostle Paul reminds us—And (Jesus) died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for Him who for their sake died and was raised.

While we love and are blessedly comforted by the first half of this verse, we often seem to forget or ignore the second half—the SO THAT half.

In other words, we often fail to respond in any specific way to the Word of God we have just heard or read.

So, don't forget to ask yourself that SO THAT QUESTION the next time you are in worship, Bible class, or having devotions at home. And, if you dare ask that question, don't be surprised if the Holy Spirit answers it. After all, that's one of the blessed things He has promised us He'll do.

And, that's the SO THAT QUESTION from your Board of Christian Outreach.

LADIES LEAGUE LWML

Our monthly meeting was held on August 7th in the Fellowship Hall where revitalizing lemon décor and desserts awaited us. Wanda Gross led us with a devotion entitled "The Race of Faith: Persevering!" The devotion reminded us to set goals and meet our goals through perseverance and prayer, based on Ephesians 6:18 and Luke 18:1-18.

Following the common table prayer, we enjoyed the lunches we brought as well as the desserts and drinks provided by our hostesses, Alice Jestus and Susan Housewright.

Our guest speaker was Amanda Douglas, who brought us up-to-date on Eve's Restoration Ministry, from its conception to the present day goals.

LWML news and committee reports were given during our business meeting. We prepared "thinking of you" cards for our church member shut-ins.

We will meet next month on September 4th at 11:30am in the Fellowship Hall. Rose Anne Bense and Wanda Gross are scheduled to be our hostesses. After the meeting, we will prepare the in-gathering donations for St. Louis's tornado victims and take to Bethlehem Lutheran Church. Thank you to all that donated toward this project.

ALL ladies of the church are welcome to attend our meetings.

They are on the first Thursday of the month, at 11:30am in the fellowship hall.

Member Spotlight Sean & Maria O'Guin

Tell us where you are from and what brings you to Columbia/St. Paul's? My name is Maria and I am from Red Bud and my husband Sean is from Waterloo. We both moved here a few years ago, and recently moved into a new house just down the street from St. Paul's!

Tell us about your family. Right now it is just Sean and I, but we are praying God blesses us with a little one in the very near future. :) However, we are both very close with our parents, siblings, extended family, as well as our friends and the many babies they've recently brought into our lives. :)

What led you to become members at St. Paul's?

We were previously members of St. John's Lutheran Church in Red Bud, but have been on the hunt for a new church here in town since getting married two years ago, and feel St. Paul's is the perfect place! We are so happy to have found a home here!

What is your favorite Bible verse or story about Jesus?

Our favorite verse which was our wedding verse is 1 John 4:19, "We love because He first loved us." We have always felt this very much resonates with us as we feel so beyond blessed to have the love that we share for one another, but know it would not be possible without God's love for us and our shared love for God.

What do you like to do as a family when you are not at church?

As mentioned, we recently bought a home and are in the midst of home projects. We spend a lot of time with our family and friends on the weekends. We LOVE trying new restaurants and simply enjoying the company and laughter of our loved ones. We hope to do lots of entertaining this fall once we get some of those home projects completed. :)

Friends and Members of St. Paul's,

It is a rule of etiquette that if you want general agreement rather than disagreement you should refrain from discussing religion or politics. In this country similar statements can be found in print all the way back to the 1840's. Even in the popular "Peanuts comic strip" Linus is quoted as saying "There are three things I have learned never to discuss with people...religion, politics, and the Great Pumpkin." Many years back there was a witness survey conducted by the Billy Graham association among those attending training sessions for a crusade. You would think these would be the most motivated to share their faith. Yet, when asked "What is your greatest hindrance to witnessing?" they said the following:

- (9%) Felt they were too busy and/or forgot to do so.
- (28%) Believed they lacked an understanding of the information they were to share.
- (12%) Stated their own lives did not reflect well their faith.
- (0%) They did not really care.
- (51%) Was the fear of how others would react.

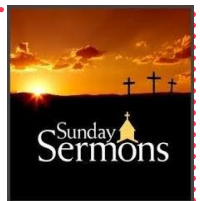

Notice they all cared but were hindered either by their own fragilities or by the perceived negative reactions to their intentional witness. What if, in fact, they/we were more than qualified? What if the expected negative response their witness caused, was quite positive? This has been my experience. Throughout the month of September and even into October, our Sunday morning adult class along with weekly bulletin announcements, and weekly emails will address various outreach issues. We will tackle head on this fear of how others will react. We will learn to ask various questions which can assist us in fruitful religious dialogue. We will learn how to be ready with a response when asked about the hope that is in us. We will discuss ways we can humbly discuss the faith with our children, grandchildren, and even those who have had a negative experience with the church. We will learn how listening rather than talking is the first key when witnessing to our faith. We will learn how prayer is an essential tool in this whole process. Thanks be to God we had parents, grandparents, pastors, friends, teachers, and others who shared the faith with us. May the Lord help us do the same with others.

Blessings in Christ,
Pastor Krenz
